LINING THE CONNAUGHT TUNNEL

Upper left—in spite of heavy snowfall and below snow weather the work of lining the Connaught Tunnel is continued throughout the winter months. The cloud-wrapped peaks of Mount Abbott and Ross Peak stand as western sentinels of the little town.
Upper right—Glacier, B.C., showing Mount Stordonald, 9,422 feet, through which the five mile Connaught Tunnel passes. An altitude of 10,888 feet, is on the extreme right.
Lower left—The redoubtable engineer's big nose, one of the most beautiful peaks in the Canadian Rockies.
Lower right—Western Portal of the Connaught Tunnel, showing the fan house and the two huge 14 ft. steel fans which ventilate the "big hole."

High up on the crest of the lofty Selkirk with half a dozen of the finest mountain peaks in the world hunching their snow-capped shoulders above its rows of trim brown houses, lies the picturesque town of Glacier on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway through British Columbia. Three and a half miles distant from this little construction centre, which has virtually been called into being through the lining of the Connaught Tunnel, hangs the great Ullswater Glacier on the slopes of Mount Stordonald and two miles nearer the glacier house, the annual mecca of thousands of summer tourists.

Few of the surrounding peaks at Glacier are less than 9,000 feet in altitude. The famous Cheops, Mount Stordonald, Ross, Eagle and Abbott Peaks encircle the little settlement. In winter time a blanket of snow enfolds town and mountains alike. In spring the brilliant yellow slide lilies follow the ever-receding snow line as it climbs higher and higher up the mountain sides. Life is enlivened in the summer time by the crowds of guests who throng Glacier House and transforms the scene again with generous splashes of orange, crimson and red.

Common interest in the great engineering project under way has brought about a very definite community spirit at Glacier. For almost every youngster's daddy works in the big tunnel in one or other of the various branches of work which the lining demands, and every household is regulated by a schedule of working hours which begin at 5 a.m. and end at 1.15. Half a hundred children attend the little brown school and various clubs for the grown-ups provide interests of a recreational and cultural nature.

Engineers, foremen, carpenters, machinists, drillers, electricians, laborers and train crews make up the wage earners among the 600 residents of Glacier. Single men live in a well ordered camp. Here, as in the little houses where the men with families live, all the conveniences of a modern city are provided, including electric lights and running water piped from a nearby mountain stream.

The lining of this five mile tunnel, the longest on the American continent, with a steel reinforced concrete jacket represents one of the most interesting engineering projects now under way anywhere in the world.

Beneath 6,000 feet of mountain the Connaught Tunnel cuts under Mount Macdonald between the stations of Connaught and Glacier. With the opening of this underground short-cut in 1916 the Canadian Pacific Railway overcame the many difficulties which the old Rogers Pass route had presented. The track curvature to an amount corresponding to seven complete circles was eliminated; the summit attained by the Railway was reduced 522 feet; the track grade was shortened by four and a half miles and more than four miles of snow sheds which had been necessary on the slopes of Mount Macdonald were dispensed with.

Edmonton Bye-Election

Four candidates were officially nominated this week to contest the bye-election in Edmonton for the vacancy created in the Provincial Legislature by the resignation of Hon. J. R. Boyle. The candidates are E. M. Bartholomew, Labor; A. F. Ewing, Conservative; W. T. Henry, Liberal; and Gerald Pelton, Independent Liberal. Election day is on October 27th.

Has Charge of New Course

W. J. Elliott, former principal of Claresholm Agricultural School and latterly with the livestock branch of the United Grain Growers, has been appointed by the provincial department of agriculture to take charge of the training of the British boys who will come to Alberta for special courses in practical agriculture at the Vermilion School of Agriculture, east of Edmonton. Under this plan which was evolved by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, in conjunction with the British Overseas Settlement Board, young men of from 18 to 25 years of age will be brought to Alberta for special training in agriculture before going on the land. There are now fifty of these young men on the way to Alberta to take this course, they having sailed this week. They will follow later.

Alberta Stock Wins Again

Alberta cattle were to the front in the prize winnings at the annual stock and feeder show at Winnipeg, Man., the past week. Mr. Minick, of the Peace River District, won first and second for the best five Shorthorn steers. Wright, of Lloydminster, won first for best carload of Shorthorns, while Poynter, of Brimley, won first in the Hereford classes. At the Saskatchewan show at Moose Jaw, Alberta men also won prizes.

Crows' Nest Railway Rates

Consequent upon the cancellation by the Railway Commissioners of Canada, of the Crows' Nest Pass railway rate agreement, Premier Greenfield, representing the Alberta Government's views, made the following statement:

"The Government of Alberta considers the maintenance of the Crows' Nest Pass agreement absolutely essential to western producers. The decision handed down by the Board of Railway Commissioners looks like the beginning of a long fight."
"The Provincial Government acted jointly with the governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan in the recent hearing at Ottawa, and expect to continue that arrangement."
"Unquestionably an appeal will be taken to higher authority. What the nature of the appeal will be, we have not decided until the government has had an opportunity to study the judgment of the Board in connection with the Governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan."

Labor Placements
During the month of September the Alberta Government Employment Service was able to place a total of 6,525 men jobs, out of a total of 7,759 applications, of which 662 were withdrawn by the applicants. Of this total 5,849 placements were in agriculture, the majority being harvest hands. During the first two weeks in September the employment service was able to fill 4,637 places out of 4,846, in comparison with Saskatchewan's placement of 4,425 out of 10,544 orders.

Alberta Butter Exports Growing
Alberta is fast climbing to the front as an exporter of high quality creamery butter to the markets of the world. In 1922, the total exports of butter from this province for the year reached nearly 1,000,000 lbs. In 1923 the total has grown to nearly 2,000,000 lbs. and in 1924, to date, the total exports have reached 3,514,000 lbs., with the expectation that the total will be over 4,000,000 lbs. by the end of the year. If the same rate of increase is maintained during 1925, the total exports by the end of that year will have reached 5,000,000 lbs. or nearly half the present day grand total of all creamery butter produced in the province.

The bulk of butter exported from Alberta goes to Great Britain, but other foreign markets include several of the United States, China, Japan and even Manila. In the British market Alberta butter has been established as a distinct product, and Alberta firms are now shipping to that market butter that not only appears under its own brand name, but also is leading very closely on the heels of the famous Danish and New Zealand product with respect to quality.

And what has established Alberta butter firmly in the world market is the credit very largely be laid to the government cream grading system inaugurated by the provincial government two years ago with the full endorsement of the dairymen of the province, a system which supplements the butter grading system, and carries right back to the producer of cream on the farm the full benefit of the higher price for quality butter. This system which naturally results in the production of a higher standard of product.

Steady Improvement: Of the 3,514,000 lbs. of butter graded for export this year 89 percent, or 3,125,000 lbs. is in the special and first grades. In this amount of butter graded, the increase in "firsts" this season over last has been from 63.7 percent, to 66.3 percent, with a consequent drop in the low grades of butter from 36.3 percent to 33.7 percent. Of the total amount of cream graded this year, there has been an increase in the low grades from 40.3 percent to 44.2 percent. All this indicates a consistent improvement in the standard of the Alberta product.

NEW CANADIAN SECRET ORDER

With the ambition of assisting the Canadian-born, and fostering loyalty in the Dominion, the "Sons of Canada," a new secret fraternal order, has made application at Ottawa for a charter. Strong efforts will be made by the "Sons of Canada" to keep Canadians in their own country. The organizers point to the fact that there are "Sons of England," "Sons of France," and "Sons of America," but still other fraternal attachments, but that there is no distinctively Canadian order. It is the ambition of the charter makers to extend their organization until it is Dominion-wide and overflows in other countries. At a later date it is expected that the women's auxiliary will be added. No politics are to be admitted, and the order is to be non-sectarian. Although the entirely a social club, the members will gather at various times to hear lectures on subjects connected with Canada, or to debate on some topic of current interest relative to the Dominion. Only men born in this country will be admitted to membership. The society, which has the backing of one of the large chartered banks, intends to inaugurate an insurance and sick benefit scheme. To assist young Canadians to succeed, the organization will attempt a plan of assisted transportation throughout the Dominion, the assistance that a position awaits the applicant for such transportation at the end of his journey. Other similar efforts to assist the Canadian-born will be made.

NOT GUILTY
Motor Cyclist: "Do you know anything about an aeroplane which dropped near here?"
Urchin (holding catapult, and trembling): "No, sir, I've been shot at in sparrows!"

NAUTICAL
Heard in England, near the gaff: "Fair Voice—'Are you the mate?'"
Gruff Voice: "No, mum; O'm me mas this coast takes!"

TIMELY WARNING
He: "Takes and takes, very special I want to ask you, dear Cuddie—will you—?"
Clock: "Cuckoo!"
He: "Write something in my autograph book!"

AFTER THE HONEYMOON
"I wish to complain," said the bride haughtily, "about the four you said 'it was tough.'"
"Tough, no, my dear," replied the groom. "Yes, tough, I made a pie with it, and my husband could hardly cut it!"

WEEDS
"Which weeds are the easiest to get?" asked the city chap of the farmer.
"Widow's weeds," replied the farmer; "you have only to say 'will thou?' and they will."

A POSSIBILITY
The latest story of the "Bag went sapience" series: "There were two 'Iffadams,' and they were at the front. An 'Iff' of them took a hen and the other 'Iff' was just going to throw its neck."
"No, no, no," said the first 'Iff'; "her be till the morn's mornin'. She might lay an egg!"

WHAT SAVED HIM
From a provincial paper: "The other night a Parsons citizen pulled a revolver from under his pillow and blazed away at what he thought was a burglar in his room. Investigation proved that he had shot a hog through his own trousers hanging on a chair. All that saved him from killing himself was that he had missed his trousers when he went to bed."

NOT YET
They were on their honeymoon trip in the West and the bride's mother had insisted on accompanying the otherwise happy couple. Sudden the groom let out a yell.
"Phyllis! Phyllis!" he shouted. "Your mother has fallen over a cliff!"
"Heaven!" screamed the young woman. "Is she badly hurt?"
"Not yet! She hasn't stopped!"

THIRTEENTH CROP REPORT

Issued by Department of Agriculture, Government of Alberta, Edmonton.
Under ideal weather conditions, threshing operations are drawing to a completion in Southern Alberta, and are well under way in Central and Northern Alberta. The prospect that the end of the present month will see most of the fields cleaned up, has resulted in considerable interference rather seriously with the threshing of the grain for nearly a week, but the past fortnight has been ideal for threshing operations. Frost backward weather and the second growth of grain consequent upon late rains, have resulted in considerable interference with the threshing of the grain for nearly a week, but the past fortnight has been ideal for threshing operations. Frost backward weather and the second growth of grain consequent upon late rains, have resulted in considerable interference with the threshing of the grain for nearly a week, but the past fortnight has been ideal for threshing operations.

HOW WOULD THEY?

"Policeman: 'What are you standing for?'"
"Loafers: 'Nuffink!'"
"Policeman: 'Well, just move on. If everybody was to stand in one place, how would the rest get past?'"

WELL QUALIFIED

Manager: "You want a position as a sardine packer, eh?"
Applicant: "Yes, sir."
Manager: "Had any experience?"
Applicant: "Yes, sir. Two years as a street car conductor."

An Important Announcement

Owing to the slowness of business during the winter months, and heretofore having the same overhead expense, we have lost considerable money from this time of the year after November 1st, when you will see the order to avoid the same thing happening again we have decided to do away with every possible unnecessary expense, thus enabling us to sell our meat considerably cheaper.
In the winter months nearly everybody can arrange to get their meats, if necessary, one day ahead, or send the children, or phone your order and have someone call for it, as our policy from November 1st will be one of CASH AND CARRY, thus doing away with the delivery until April 1st, which is one of the most expensive parts of our overhead expense. We might also say that money owing on account has been very slow coming in, and in order to reduce our liabilities we are forced to make this change.
Should you send for your meat, or have someone call, you may depend on the same Service and Quality in meats as we have given in the past. By referring to our ad in this issue you will be able to compare our present prices with our prices after November 1st, when you will see the benefit you will derive by trying to help economize through the coming winter, which looks none too good from a business standpoint in our district for the most of it.
In this ad, we are going to give you our present prices, also our November 1st prices, so you will be able to compare them and see where you will be benefited.

Wonderful Values in New Dresses

The prices of our New Dresses are at least twenty-five per cent less than former prices for the same quality of materials and workmanship. This is possible because of new buying connections made a few months ago. The few old dresses previously in stock have been re-priced accordingly, or even less, and customers tell us it is now to their decided advantage to buy all their dresses for all occasions from our stock, which is very complete and always up-to-the-last-minute, as new garments are arriving almost daily. Excepting only in the very cheapest garments, every dress is an exclusive garment, as we purchase only individual dresses, which are not duplicated in the district between Calgary and Edmonton.

COLONIZING THE LETHBRIDGE NORTHERN

Definite steps towards a permanent policy of colonization of the surplus lands of the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation District are being taken by the Provincial Government, according to an announcement made this week by Premier Greenfield. The Government has already done a certain amount of colonizing, realizes the necessity for a more aggressive and comprehensive policy to put the project on a successful basis. The Government recognizes the principle that successful colonization involves the necessity of reduction in area of present holdings, the present situation being that many of the present owners in the Lethbridge Northern district are overburdened with land, which makes overhead costs high. A survey is now being conducted of the entire district, to obtain information as to the holdings of present owners, the amount of land they would dispose of, their farm records and financial conditions. With this detailed information available, the Government will be in a position to settle upon a permanent policy of colonization. The Government has in mind that any policy dealing with the Lethbridge Northern should serve as an aid to and supplement in an orderly way a general policy for the re-establishment of the area affected by drought. The Government is now dealing in an immediate way with the removal of settlers from these areas, but recognizes the need of a policy dealing with the whole situation in a more permanent way.

FOOLED

"Hallo, Cauliflower!" said a facetious young man to a farmer who was driving along a country road. "Give a fellow a lift to Lamtown?" Without waiting for a reply, he jumped into the car. "It might as well ride with you as walk."

After two or three miles had been covered, the young man paused for a moment in his chatter. "It's farther to Lamtown than I supposed," he remarked.

"It's a good distance," said the farmer. Another twenty minutes passed, and then the young man inquired: "About how far is it to Lamtown?"

"Well," replied the farmer, "keepin' straight on the way we're walkin' it, I should say 'twould be a matter of a thousand miles or so; but, if you was to get out of my car and walk it back, it isn't very much above eight miles!"

NO MORE SPECIAL
TIMBER PERMITS

Hon. Charles Stewart Calls Off Sale in Athabasca Due to Strange Arrangement

Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, is through making any special concessions in the matter of timber sales, never mind what kind of "deserving cause" is offered as an excuse.

The minister reached this decision after a mistake that was made in connection with the sale of a public timber berth in Athabasca, which was offered at the request of the Scottish Benevolent Aid Society, an organization that is bringing Hebridean settlers to Alberta.

In order to provide winter labor, the time for advertising this sale was reduced from the regulation 60 days to 16 days.

Apparently, somebody at Ottawa not only exceeded instructions by placing the purchase price of the berth at only $300, but also got tangled in the terms of the notice of sale, so that the purchaser of the berth, for the sum of $300, was enabled to go ahead and cut ties at the usual fee of ten cents a tie, while the purchase was determined by when they were competing parties, by bidding mythical sums per thousand feet of lumber that would never be touched.

The official who conducted the sale at the Edmonton land office, realizing the absurdity of the proceedings, called the sale off, and the facts were later reported to the department at Ottawa.

Mr. Stewart, when advised while in Edmonton of the facts of the case, at once instructed the land office to future sales of timber berths, no matter what the circumstances, would be made in strict accordance with the regulations.

Religious unity for India

The religious unity conference which began at Delhi, India, last week, has resulted in a plea to the Moslems to recognize the Hindu right to play music before or in process of infinity to images, and just as the Hindus left the question of cow slaughter to the good sense of the Moslems, the latter are urged to force the Hindus to abandon their religious rights. A resolution on the dispute between the Moslems and Sikhs over the manner of killing animals for meat permits such slaughter in all manners.

The conference established a central arbitration board of 15 members, with Mohandas Gandhi as chairman, to settle the communal disputes of the communities represented on the board.

November Rod and Gun

Every sportsman will be interested in the November issue of Rod and Gun in Canada. The stories and articles, based on a variety of subjects, will hold the attention of all who read. Raymond Thompson has an unusually good story entitled "The Sins of the Fathers, in this number. Some Wild Animal Trails and Some Adventures Along Them from the pen of Bonnydale Dale is on a par with his previous excellent wild animal stories. Hubert J. Black has written a humorous account of an English "terrier" who is duped by an unscrupulous fur buyer in the West in his story called "Foxes. These are only a few of the interesting contributions to this number, which also include an enlightening article on Moose Calling by Henry Brailwaite and "A Fishing Trip" in the Island Province, by A. F. Atkinson. The stories of F. V. Williams, Martin Hunter and J. W. Wines, who are regular contributors to the magazine, are all up to the mark, and the regular departments conducted by the departmental editors are brimful of good and interesting reading.

Public Danger

Caught Disease On the HANDS!

Skin disease threatens us every day. Inevitable germs of blood-poison, eczema, etc., are waiting to infect the least cut or sore place. The money you use carries germs—you get them on the handles, rails and straps of the trains and street cars, and in a score of other ways. Specially through Zam-luk, Mr. Henry C. Davis, of South 17th Street, Kansas City, U.S.A., has just escaped a virulent type of eczema, contracted, he suspects, through use of public towels.

"I had medical advice," he says, "tried in addition all sorts of so-called remedies, without finding the hoped-for relief. Zam-luk treatment soon gave positive results. It took away the painful irritation and quickly purified and healed the deep troublesome sores."

"Why, no," answered the girl, "this is the Such-and-Such hotel."

"Oh, all right," said the man. Just woke up and didn't know where I was."
